DECMIL AWARDED CONTRACT TO BUILD ACCOMMODATION FOR FORTESCUE METALS GROUP

KEY POINTS

- Decmil awarded A$28M contract to construct rail camp for Fortescue Metals Group
- Construction to commence in March 2012

Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) (DGL or the Company) is pleased to announce that the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Decmil Australia Pty Limited, has been awarded a $28 million contract to build accommodation for Fortescue Metals Group in the Pilbara region of Western Australia.

Decmil will construct a 200 person rail camp, including accommodation rooms and associated facilities, at the site south of Port Hedland as part of Fortescue Metals Group's T155 Rail Expansion Program.

Construction is due to commence in early March 2012, with a forecast completion date of second quarter of calendar year 2012.

Decmil Group Limited Chief Executive Officer Scott Criddle said: "We are delighted to build on our relationship with Fortescue Metals Group through this contract. This is the latest in a series of projects that Decmil has carried out for Fortescue Metals Group, including the construction of an airstrip and provision of staff accommodation at Christmas Creek."

The rail camp contract involves the delivery of 200 single person accommodation rooms (with an option to increase to 514 rooms), a wet mess, gym and recreational facilities, and administration and central facilities.
