DECMIL GROUP LIMITED AWARDED CONTRACT FOR ROY HILL IRON ORE PROJECT DIESEL FUEL INFRASTRUCTURE

Key points:

- $37.5 million contract for construction of diesel fuel infrastructure
- Work scheduled to commence immediately for expected completion in 1st Quarter 2015
- Demonstrates the strength and expertise of the Group

Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) has been awarded a contract from the Roy Hill Iron Ore Project for the design and construction of diesel fuel infrastructure including a rail fuel yard, mine fuel yard, go-line fuel facility, mine services fuel and rail wet commissioning.

The $37.5 million project in the Pilbara has been awarded to Decmil Group's wholly-owned subsidiary Decmil Australia.

The win demonstrates the Group's design, civil engineering and construction expertise and broadens the range of services Decmil is providing at Roy Hill. In April 2013, the Company was awarded two contracts totalling more than $71 million to design and construct rail and port facilities at Roy Hill, along with associated infrastructure.

Decmil Australia is preparing to mobilise and commence work on site in March 2014, with an anticipated completion of the diesel fuel infrastructure project by March 2015.

Decmil CEO Scott Criddle said: "Market conditions within the mining and oil & gas sectors remain challenging so we are thrilled to be involved in this project.

"The award of this contract strengthens our position and further demonstrates our expertise within the iron ore sector."
