DECMIL AWARDED ELIZABETH QUAY PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE CONTRACT

- Valued at $19.88 million
- Joint venture with Structural Systems and Hawkins Civil (DASSH)
- Demonstrates civil construction capabilities

Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) ("Decmil") is pleased to announce the award of a contract to construct the Pedestrian Bridge to be located at Elizabeth Quay in Perth, Western Australia.

The $19.88 million bridge contract is a Joint Venture between Decmil, Structural Systems and Hawkins Civil (DASSH) and will connect the new promenades, the Island and ferry terminal at Elizabeth Quay.

Leighton Broad, the managing contractor, is delivering these works that are part of the Elizabeth Quay Inlet and Public Space Development for the West Australian State Government which has an overall value of $440 million.

The feature arch and suspension bridge will be 20m high, 5m wide and suspended over the inlet with a clearance of 5.2m from the water. It will include feature lighting, distinctive architecture and fit out, allowing cyclists and pedestrians to enjoy the view of the city and Quay while allowing recreational vessels to pass underneath.

Scott Criddle, CEO and Managing Director of Decmil said he is thrilled with the win.

"This is the second West Australian government infrastructure project we have secured in recent months and we are excited to be part of a project that will transform the face of Perth.

"The award of this contract further demonstrates our ability to deliver complex civil construction projects."
