2 Construction & Engineering

Construction & Engineering Highlights

Financial

- Revenue grew by 54% to $357.3m, which is a pleasing result given the challenging conditions in iron ore and LNG
- The challenging conditions did see a decline in construction margins, resulting in a broadly flat gross profit and EBITDA of $42.7m (↓3%) and $24.8m (↑4%) respectively

Operations

- Ongoing progress on key contracts with the DIBP, Roy Hill, QGC and Rio Tinto
- Expansion of the engineering services the Group offers to upstream CSG
- Now established as a significant contractor to Government with new work in defence, education, health and transport

Strategy + Outlook

- Challenging conditions likely to extend into FY16 due to low commodity prices and fiscal challenges for Government
- Major focus is the expansion of the engineering services to the operational and sustaining capital phase of major iron ore and LNG projects
- Pursuing further opportunities for both Australian and New Zealand Governments – principally in education, health, defence and immigration as well as roads and bridges

- Average occupancy of 81% for H1FY15
- Established as the premier workforce accommodation facility in the greater Gladstone region
- Strong supply side position in the market

Strategy + Outlook

- Short term reduction in occupancy levels likely as the Curtis Island LNG projects commission – however the village has historically had a broad mix of customers
- Well positioned to capture operational tenancy from the operations and maintenance phases of LNG in Gladstone
- Many key LNG maintenance service providers already customers of the village
- Expanded range of services to key clients, including workforce mobilisation and roster management services

Outlook

- Challenging short term conditions in traditional sectors
- Weaker H2FY15 expected
- Full year FY15 revenue expected in the $650m to $700m range
- Challenging conditions likely to extend into FY16 due to low commodity prices and fiscal challenges for Government
- Medium term outlook – focussed on the expansion of the engineering services the Group offers to the operational and sustaining capital phase of major iron ore and LNG projects
- Now established as a significant contractor to a variety of Government infrastructure

Further Presence in LNG Services

- Expanded presence in upstream LNG sector by virtue of new work with Origin and further contract works awarded with QGC
- Embedded within the operational phase of CSG via mechanical services contracts currently being undertaken
- Currently assessing inorganic and organic entry points into the downstream LNG sector (WA & QLD) as the major projects transition from construction to operations

Now an Established Contractor to Gov't

- The Group has made significant progress as a contractor to Government on infrastructure projects such as roads and bridges as well as education, health and defence facilities
- Government contracts contributed $165m (42%) to of H1FY15 revenue, across a variety of disciplines for both State and Federal Government
- Pursuing further opportunities for both Australian and New Zealand Governments – principally in education, health, defence and immigration as well as roads and bridges

Infrastructure

- Decmil has been shortlisted (1 of 3 consortia) for the WA Schools PPP as co sponsor and managing contractor
- Further PPP opportunities likely given its attractiveness to Government as a means of funding and delivering infrastructure
- Decmil's interest primarily in social infrastructure (e.g. education and health)
- Continue to assess other infrastructure Build Own Operate ("BOO") opportunities for the resources sector, primarily in fuel and non process infrastructure

Communications Market: SAS Telecom

- The acquisition provides Decmil with a platform into the telecommunication installation market and the provision of related managed services
- There are also synergies within the Group's existing construction, engineering and accommodation services divisions
- Key opportunities relate to the NBN and larger projects for the supply of communication systems, structured cabling (fibre and copper) and data supply to resource projects, government infrastructure and commercial buildings
