DECMIL AWARDED $57M OF DEFENCE CONTRACTS

- Accommodation and fuel projects awarded at RAAF Learmonth in Exmouth, Western Australia
- Follows three contract awards from Department of Defence for HMAS Stirling in Western Australia
- Design and construct project with Capital Facilities and Infrastructure Branch of Department of Defence in Queensland
- Expands Decmil's footprint in Government

Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) ("Decmil") is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Decmil Australia Pty Ltd, has been awarded a number of projects in Western Australia, Darwin and Queensland totalling $57m for the Department of Defence.

The projects include fuel infrastructure upgrade works and replacement of accommodation blocks at Learmonth RAAF Base and fuel installation remediation packages at HMAS Stirling on Garden Island in Western Australia.

In Queensland Decmil was awarded the construction of an urban operations training facility (tactical town training area) and explosives hazards training area at Wide Bay Training Area near the town of Tin Can Bay (2.5 hours North of Brisbane).

Scott Criddle, CEO and Managing Director of Decmil, said:

"Decmil is delighted to be partnering with the Department of Defence on these important contracts and this new work demonstrates our capability to deliver integrated engineering and construction projects for Government.

The business continues to target further opportunities with Government in the immigration, health, transport and education sectors".
