DECMIL AWARDED $46M OF DEFENCE CONTRACTS

- Fifteen remediation and refurbishment packages awarded across HMAS Stirling, Bindoon, Campbell Barracks, Irwin Barracks and RAAF Pearce in Western Australia
- Awarded two sub-contract packages at HMAS Albatross in New South Wales
- Additional work awarded at Robertson Barracks in Northern Territory and Wide Bay in Queensland

Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) (“Decmil”) is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Decmil Australia Pty Ltd, has been awarded further work totalling $46m for the Department of Defence in Western Australia, New South Wales, Northern Territory and Queensland.

In Western Australia the projects include a combat range refurbishment and bullet escalator trap replacement at Campbell Barracks in Swanbourne, an upgrade to water supply infrastructure at the Bindoon Training Area, asbestos remediation and maintenance works of two hangars at RAAF Pearce in Bullsbrook, civil and infrastructure works at Irwin Barracks in Karrakatta and various refurbishment and remediation packages at HMAS Stirling on Garden Island.

In New South Wales, Decmil has been awarded sub-contract packages for the installation of stainless steel aircraft fuel lines and construction of new hot refuelling points. The upgrade includes the installation of a new fuel control building and associated crew rooms at HMAS Albatross in Parma.

Additional work was also secured at Robertson Barracks in the Northern Territory and Wide Bay in Queensland where Decmil was already undertaking various works.
